Bessy is ill with byssinosis from inhaling cotton dust, which eventually kills. Nicholas, at Margaret's prodding, approaches Thornton for a job and eventually obtains one.

Trudy Brusaresaid: . To demonstrate this, Gaskell must make Thornton grow from something similar to the norm of industrialists in her time into something better. As the chapter titles "First Impressions", "Mistakes", "Mistakes Cleared Up", "Mischances" and "Atonement" indicate that North and South is peppered with Margaret's blunders and problematic situations with other characters which create misunderstandings.

Bodenheimer interprets the early chapters not as false starts but as demonstrations tried to eliminate the limitations of a serialised novel [8] by elaborating on events after the death of Mr.
