The problem is, that principle is completely contrary to the New Testament! One clue to the phenomenal growth of the early church was the fact that they knew how to use this gift. You will learn how to think through your own personal testimony of your relationship with Jesus. For example, you might include the words forgiveness and patience or use pictures that depict kindness. I don't love the way Jesus loves, but I want to. Sharing your own personal testimony is an excellent way to build rapport between you and others. Jesus taught His disciples to place love of God over the cares of the world. Let us suppose that a man is speaking in tongues and another man interrupts him, announcing that he is going to prophesy.
