Eusebius, The Proof of the Gospel, W. Books IV and V are mainly occupied with discussions on the oracles and their pretended prophecies and healings, which are attributed both by Eusebius and by the witnesses whom he quotes to the activity of evil daemons. Eusebius claimed originality for other works as well; see HE 1. And when Kronos had advanced to manhood, he, with the counsel and help of Hermes Trismegistus who was his secretary repels his father Uranus, and avenges his mother. The best overall treatment is Mansfeld, provides a useful survey of the use of the threefold division of Ethics, Dialectic, and Physics, he notices the moral teaching of the sacred writers, their literary methods, accurate reasoning, and correct use of significant names, their knowledge of the natural world, and their contemplation of the 'true being' of things unseen chapters The very first indeed to deprecate deceitful and sophisticated plausibilities, and to use proofs free from ambiguity, was the holy Apostle Paul, who says in one place, 'And our speech and our preaching was not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power.
