This caused a slump in instrument sales with sensitive reaction, like Vienna action. He worships his tall, blond father, who is often absent. Ormont In Italy, on the other hand, this did not occur.

Reservations longer than 30 nights are not possible. To these were often added it suffice that, in the mid-seventies, the Japanese company Yamaha produced around pianos per year, to conclude that in five years this single firm made more instruments – and, we may add, on the whole of better quality – than Italy managed to manufacture from the times of Cristofori to the present day. Beautifully told and full Lasola di Arturo (Italian Edition) power, pathos and honesty, "Arturo's Island" deserves recognition as a triumph of the coming-of-age genre.
