And I loved Chase. He has nothing against being her birthday present and being used in bed.

Jane's groveling, which was totally justified and called for a madem like her. You could even read it as a stand alone, since there is no on going story threading between. As it is, solid 4-stars. Yet another book that took me ages to finish!

I've tried to figure out what exactly I liked about the book, and I just don't know. She tries to keep her relationship with Chase superficial, but he is a hard man to relegate into a corner of her life. There was no time .
