The New Sociological Imagination. Invisible Crisis of Contemporary Society. The book offers students a rich understanding of social theory, yet it is simultaneously concise and broad ranging, allowing instructors to further pursue detailed exploration of any perspectives they choose. Reportingfrom: .OnlineAvailableonline. How can the sociologist effect in practice this radical doubting which is indispensable for bracketing all the presuppositions inherent in the fact that she is a social being, that she is therefore socialized and led to feel "like a fish in water" within that social world whose structures she has internalized? Sebastian rated it it was amazing Jun 20, In Allan's usage, sociological theory consists of abstract and testable propositions about society.
