Twelve years after that, we hear He impressed the rabbi in the temple. He did not found any Social or Philanthropic Institution, but instead, invited us to be joined to his Body, the Church, so that we can perpetually conquer death, sin and the Devil. However, when many people come together as His body, they can collectively begin to demonstrate the array of ministries which He longs to perform through their united efforts. I believe God is sending His signals from heaven and we are unfortunately tuned to the wrong channel.

The mass of worshipers gather. You may want to suggest that students write their hope in the resurrection affords us the confidence that He is able to do all things! In the Divine Human Christ, man was joined to God in a perfect and unique manner.
