I think way more ground work needed to be worked in for me to buy a lot of the things that the author was throwing. This is my first book from this author, and I really enjoyed her style of writing, so it won't be my. Community Reviews.

We are at the beach, on what must have been one of those rare warm days at the Oregon coast. I started it this morning and haven't been able to put it down. Through the Test of Time I liked how everything flowed. I was really interested in the premise of the story, a girl whose parents were murdered before she ever really knew.
