And on this rock, with a little sandy soil in its hollows and a peat bog in one part, five hundred souls were making a livelihood by fishing, keeping a cow, a pony perhaps, and a few hens, and by growing little unfenced patches of potatoes and grain, grain which I have seen harvested by handfuls, roots and all. Incidentally, they give a bird's-eye view of Gaeldom from the misty A Raasay Love Lilt to the present time. Thethingpreformedfaultlesslyforyearsuntiltheactuallaptopkeypadfail The sea and land in Barra are inseparable playmates, and the sea-wrack for the fields is found close at hand and fetched easily on the back of the creel-girt ponies. But she was victorious in a song-contest between herself and a Uist woman, and this Barra Ballad was the song she sang in Uist . ThroughoutmyshortlifeRaasayhasseenitsfairshareofchanges:newpeople
